

SLAP & POP BASS LINES

So far in this chapter, you have tried all the techniques used in funky slap & pop bass lines. The following pages are filled with bass lines using these techniques. Play through the lines very slowly at first and then gradually speed up to the suggested tempo. If you don't have the CD that is available with this book, play these bass lines with a drum machine, metronome or better yet, a real rhythm section (drums and guitar).
