

Stu Cook

Bass Transcriptions

CREEDENCE CLEARWATER REVIVAL ANTHOLOGY

Transcribed by Eric Beaulé

Introduction

Bassist Stu Cook, along with brothers Tom and John Fogerty and drummer Doug Clifford, were the founding members of Creedence Clearwater Revival. Tom was the rhythm guitarist and younger brother John was the singer, lead guitarist and main songwriter for the band.

CCR has been a staple of Classic Rock radio for more than 40 years and one of the most prolific rock bands of all time. They've released 7 albums between 1968 and 1972, which spawned nine top 10 singles and several top 40 songs. In all, 20 radio hits! In 1969 alone, they've released three of their best known albums, which were all certified platinum.

Stu's style of bass playing is solid, precise and focuses on the song.

Cook, along with Clifford is still recording and touring with Creedence Clearwater Revisited, entertaining audiences around the world.

The 15 song collection found in this ebook covers the seven CCR albums. It will certainly give you a taste of Stu's stylistic approach.

I hope you'll enjoy the transcriptions and happy shedding!

Table of Contents

| Albums | Song Titles | |
|------------------------------|------------------------------|----|
| Creedence Clearwater Revival | Susie Q | 3 |
| Bayou Country | Proud Mary | 9 |
| Green River | Bad Moon Rising | 14 |
| Green River | Lodi | 17 |
| Green River | Green River | 22 |
| Willy and the Poor Boys | Down on the Corner | 25 |
| Willy and the Poor Boys | Fortunate Son | 28 |
| Cosmo's Factory | Up Around the Bend | 31 |
| Cosmo's Factory | Travelin' Band | 35 |
| Cosmo's Factory | Who'll Stop the Rain | 39 |
| Cosmo's Factory | Lookin' Out My Back Door | 42 |
| Cosmo's Factory | Long as I Can See the Light | 48 |
| Pendulum | Have You Ever Seen the Rain? | 51 |
| Pendulum | Hey Tonight | 54 |
| Mardi Gras | Sweet Hitch-Hiker | 58 |